

M de Molière

MET@Warwick Theater
Kansas City, MO

Saturday, April 30th - 7:30 pm & Sunday, May 1st - 1:00 pm

Jérôme Pouly the famous actor from the Comédie Française who played Molière more than 1000 times is coming to Kansas City to perform the Play he wrote for the festival KC Molière 400 in 2022 “M de Molière”, an interactive play in French at the MET@Warwick, 3927 Main St, Kansas City MO.

The Alliance Française de Kansas City (AFKC) is thrilled to be co-producer of this special event, a World Premiere, before a tour in France The actor will tackle some of Molière’s favorite themes, starting with “M” like Machinations, Misery, Marriage, Medical Matters, Morality, Music, and More.

To share this unique experience in French in KC, every “M” or scene will be beforehand described and commented in English*. A real and funny immersion in the world of Molière in the language of Molière with an exceptional actor who loves interacting with the public.

THIS IS AN EXPERIENCE YOU DON'T WANT TO MISS...
GET YOUR TICKETS NOW!

[CLICK HERE TO BUY
YOUR TICKETS](#)

*Discount for all current AFKC members (50%)
and for friends of KC Molière 400 in 2022
Request a discount at MdeMoliere@afkc.org*

*Special thanks to Dr V Roche Tiengo PhD, a Molière specialist, assistant dean for international and institutional relations at Université Paris Sorbonne Nord for her exceptional participation.

This event would not have been possible without the generous support from the White Simchowitz Family Fund.